Statement giving reasons for omission in P. and A. Regulations of paragraphs in A. R. I., Vol. I.

Para in A. R. I., Vol. I.	Reasons for omission.
13	Clause (b). Portion relating to brigade commanders omitted with reference to the general rule in para. 384, P. & A. Regs., Part I. Clause (c). Omitted with reference to the general rule in para. 384, P. & A. Regs., Part I. Clause (c). Portion relating to baggage master and base army paymaster omitted, such appointments being obsolete. Portion relating to political adviser, telegraph officer and superintendent of post offices omitted, not being necessary in P. & A. Regs.
17	Omitted with reference to the rules in paras. 92 & 108, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
20	First portion omitted as pay or staff pay will be regulated under the rule in para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I. Note omitted as pay or staff pay under a time-scale of promotion is not regulated by vacancies or the taking up of duties.
21	Omitted as full staff pay is admissible in all acting appointments and pay during transit will be regulated by the rule in para. 96, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
22	Omitted as provision has been made in para. 64 (iv), P. & A. Regs., Part II, for the admission of half staff pay of his substantive appointment at the time such an officer proceeds on leave.
23	Omitted as provision has been made in A. R., I., Vol. II, for this.
24	Omitted as this rule should find a place in A. R., I., Vol. II, it not being the duty of the audit office to determine whether an officer forfeits his appointment or not under the circumstances given in this para.
25 (a)	Unnecessary as under the revised rule in para. 96, P. & A. Regs., Part I, an officer is entitled to the pay or staff pay of his old or new appointment whichever is less and the officer who succeeds him in his old post will draw the pay or staff pay of the appointment on taking over the duties under para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I. See also para. 108 (a), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
25 (c)	Unnecessary as it is covered by the rule in para. 108 (a), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
27-I (b)	Last clause omitted as the officer who succeeds to the appointment will draw pay or staff pay thereof from date of taking over duties under para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I, or date of vacancy under para. 95, ibid, and the previous incumbent will cease to draw it from that date.
27 (iii)	Last 3 lines omitted as this point will be considered by Government when abolishing an appointment without having a rule to this effect in the regulations.
28	Unnecessary as the audit office will only admit staff pay when it receives the proper notification appointing an officer to act.
2 (a)	Second clause unnecessary as an officiating officer will draw full staff pay of the officiating appointment under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I. Note.—Unnecessary as horse allowance is no longer admissible. vide A. I. I. 767 of 1922.
2 ^b (b)	First clause unnecessary as full staff pay is admissible to an acting incumbent.
29 (e)	Unnecessary as staff pay will be discontinued from the date an officer hands over his duties under para. 97, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
29 (h)	First clause unnecessary as full staff pay is admissible under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I, to an acting incumbent.

Statement giving reasons for omission in P. and A. Regulations of paragraphs in A. R. I., Vol. I.—contd.

Para. in A. R. I., Vol. I.	Reasons for omission.
29 (h)—contd.	Last 3 lines of second clause. Provision has been made in para. 64 (iv), P. & A. Regs., Part II, for the continuance of half staff pay of the substantive appointment held when an officer proceeded on leave. The rest of the second clause is unnecessary as an officer officiating in an appointment draws full staff pay under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
29 (i)	Unnecessary as full staff pay is admissible under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I, to the acting incumbent.
Note to 29 (j)	Ditto.
31
32
32-A
34	Unnecessary as Inspectors of Schools have been abolished, vide A. I. I. 261 of 1921.
38	Omitted as full staff pay is admissible to an acting incumbent under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
39	Ditto.
40
41
42	Unnecessary as under para. 96, P. & A. Regs., Part I, an individual will draw during transit the pay or staff pay of his old or new appointment whichever is less.
44	Unnecessary as staff pay will be discontinued under para. 97, P. & A. Regs., Part I, from the date the relieving officer assumes charge.
46	Cancelled by A. I. I. 24 of 1922.
48	The portion relating to assuming and resigning command should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II. The last clause is unnecessary as the rule in para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I, applies to all appointments.
49	The portion regarding where an Army Commander may assume charge should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II. The date from which pay is admissible provided there is no permanent incumbent has been omitted as pay will be regulated under the general rules for the commencement of pay, etc.
50	Omitted as full pay of the officiating appointment is admissible under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I, and also in the chain of acting arrangements.
51	First clause excluding portion in brackets omitted for the reasons given against para. 48. The first 3 lines of the second clause are unnecessary as the pay of the appointment will be admitted from the date the officer assumes charge, vide para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
53	Unnecessary as pay will be admitted to the relieving officers under the general rules for the commencement and discontinuance of pay (paras. 92 & 97, P. & A. Regs., Part I). The circumstances under which an officer vacates command of a District should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II, and the authority granting leave which involves vacation of command should clearly state this fact in the notification granting the leave so that the last pay certificate may be correctly issued. This point should not be left to the audit office to determine as apparently intended by the existing rule (para. 51) in A. R. I., Vol. I, as it is clearly not its duty to do so.
53	Unnecessary as the full pay of an appointment is now admissible in an officiating or temporary vacancy (see para. 349, P. & A. Regs., Part I), and will be admitted to the officer appointed to act in the vacancy by proper authority. Should it be considered necessary to retain the portion of this rule which deals with the taking over of the command, it should properly find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II, and not in the P. & A. Regs., Part I.

Statement giving reasons for omission in P. and A. Regulations of paragraphs in A. R. I., Vol. I—contd.

Para. in A. R. I., Vol. I.	Reasons for omission.
53— contd.	as the audit office is not concerned and acts on the order of appointment. Regarding the exception in para. 55, see remarks against that para. below.
54	Unnecessary as the officer gazetted to the command will only receive the pay thereof from date of assuming charge under the general rule in para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I, and the officiating officer will therefore draw the full pay of the appointment for the whole period he performs the duties thereof, i.e., until he hands over the command (see remarks on para. 56 in this connection).
55	Unnecessary in the P. & A. Regs., Part I, but should find a place in A. R., I. Vol. II, for the guidance of the authority who makes such appointments. At present it would appear that if the authority makes the appointment it is left to the audit office to point out it is incorrect and to refuse to act on the order with reference to para. 55, A. R. I., Vol. I. This should not be so and it is intended to alter this by providing for it in A. R. I., Vol. II, which should contain a para. showing exactly the circumstances in which an acting or temporary appointment can be made and when it cannot. This will guide the audit office also in admitting the pay or staff pay of acting or temporary appointment.
56	First clause. —Unnecessary as pay will be admitted on the certificate furnished to the audit office of taking over and relinquishing duties. The rule regarding where an officer can take over charge should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II.
	Second clause. —This rule is contrary to the general rule of admitting pay from the date of taking over duties, and it does not seem at all desirable to perpetuate it and make an exception to the rule in para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I. It has therefore been omitted from the P. & A. Regs., Part I.
57	Should find a place in A. R., I., Vol. II, as the authority responsible for making the appointment should take the necessary action to relieve an officer when he should vacate his command and not leave it to the audit office to deal with on the question of pay. This para. has therefore been omitted from the P. & A. Regs., Part I.
58	First clause. —Should be provided for in A. R. I., Vol. II. Pay will be admitted on the appointment order with reference to para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
	Second clause. —Unnecessary as the officer in transit will draw pay under para. 96, P. & A. Regs., Part I, and will only draw the pay of the new appointment from the date he assumes charge under para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
59	Unnecessary as the pay or staff pay of all acting or temporary appointments is regulated by para. 349, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
60 & 61	Unnecessary as full pay of the appointment is admissible under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
65	First two lines unnecessary as the audit office will admit the command pay to the officer appointed to the command. Provision might be made in A. R. I., Vol. II, for the guidance of the authority making the appointment. The remainder of the para. is covered by the rule in para. 112, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
67	Unnecessary as the allowance will be passed on the order notifying the appointment of an officer as paid A. D. C. This para. should properly find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II, for the guidance of the authority making the appointment.
70	Lines 4 & 5 unnecessary as pay or staff pay will be admitted from date of assuming duties under para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I.

Statement giving reasons for omission in P. and A. Regulations of paragraphs in A. R. I., Vol. I—contd.

Para. in A. R. I., Vol.-I.	Reasons for omission.
71	The rule in this para. should be inserted in A. R. I., Vol. II, as it refers to the seconding of the officer selected as A. D. C. Note. —Omitted as it is proposed to allow full staff pay of the appointment to the officer appointed A. D. C.
74	Provision has been made for the cessation of staff pay in para. 118 (ii), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
75	The rest of this rule should be provided for in A. R. I., Vol. II.
76	Last sentence unnecessary as full staff pay will be passed on the appointment order.
77	Omitted as the first 4 lines do not concern pay and should be provided for in A. R. I., Vol. II. The last 2 lines are also unnecessary as full additional regimental pay is admissible under para. 108 (a), P. & A. Regs., Part I.
78	Omitted, not being necessary in P. & A. Regs.
81	Unnecessary as S. S. Os. are now authorised permanently for stations and are not dependent on strength of the garrison.
86	Portion in brackets regarding S. S. O., 1st or 2nd class, has been omitted as all such officers now hold duly sanctioned staff appointments. For rule regarding compensation for loss of staff pay see para. 98, P. & A. Regs., Part II.
93	Obsolete, as there are no appointments in the S. & M. carrying progressive staff pay.
95	Unnecessary as the acting battery subaltern will draw the additional regimental pay on appointment as such in a leave or other vacancy.
96	This rule should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II.
97	Second clause unnecessary as pay or staff pay will be admitted from date of taking charge under para. 92, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
99	This rule should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II.
100	Unnecessary in the absence of any rate of remuneration for such an appointment in the P. & A. Regs., Part I.
102	Last clause unnecessary as the additional regimental pay will be governed by the usual rules.
103	Unnecessary with reference to the rules in para. 349, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
104	Unnecessary as pay or staff pay of those officers will be governed by the usual rules.
105	Should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II. Pay and acting allowance will be regulated by the rules contained in the P. & A. Regs., Part I.
113	First half of this para. should be embodied in A. R. I., Vol. II or Vol. VI. The latter half is unnecessary as pay or staff pay will be admitted to the officer who is appointed temporarily or officiating under the ordinary rules for acting allowance in para. 349, P. & A. Regs., Part I.
114	Unnecessary as provision should be made for this in A. R. I., Vol. II or Vol. VI.
115	} Obsolete owing to the introduction of the Indian Station Hospitals, vide A. I. I. 1343 of 1918.
117
118
119
120

127	Unnecessary as under para. 349 (c), P. & A. Regs., Part I, full pay of the acting appointment is admissible.
129	Superseded by A. I. I. 515 of 1920 and 167 of 1921, which have been embodied in paras. 121 & 122, P. & A. Regs., Part I.

Note to 131 (c)	Portion regarding service for promotion should find a place in A. R. I., Vol. II.
132	Superseded by A. I. I. 515 of 1920. Provision has been made in para. 124, P. & A. Regs., Part I, for such cases based on A. I. I. 936 of 1920.
152	Rendered obsolete by the introduction of the training battalion scheme.
154	Omitted, not being necessary with reference to A. I. I. 1201 of 1918 and 752 of 1922.
155 (a)	Footnotes * and † unnecessary with reference to A. I. I. 66 of 1921.
155 (b)	Notes (ii) & (iii) obsolete, vide A. I. I. 425 of 1920. Note regarding I. A. pay of rank unnecessary as Indian pay of rank is admissible to R. E. officers holding administrative and staff appointments in the M. W. S. In other cases the rule in para. 93, P. & A. Regs., Part I, will apply.
155 (c)	Note regarding I. A. pay of rank unnecessary as A. I. I. 914 of 1919 does not provide for this concession. Note regarding pay of officers commissioned from the ranks obsolete, vide A. I. I. 145 of 1921.

161	Unnecessary as reckoning of service for higher rates of pay is covered by the rule in paras. 162—164, P. & A. Regs., Part I. This rule might be embodied in A. R. I., Vol. II, if considered necessary.
